

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXIX.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, MAY 10, 1901. 9 A. M.

NO. 22

KINGSVILLE.

Dr. C. M. Thompson is having a telephone line erected between his home here and his farm at South Fork.

As a rule the mail carriers between Stanford and Kingsville are very obliging and we wish to state that Mr. Luther Lanham is no exception. He is extremely kind and obliging.

John Hart, who had but recently completed a new residence and had it nicely furnished, had the misfortune to lose it and most of his furniture by fire last week. Mr. Hart had insured his property for $500, but had not received the policy.

Mrs. Frances E. Beauchamp, State president of the W. C. T. U., lectured to a very good audience at Pleasant Point church Saturday evening. Tho' we had not the pleasure of attending, we understand that the lecture was highly entertaining and that Mrs. Beauchamp did full justice to her splendid cause. She succeeded in organizing a small union of 15 members. She was entertained while here by Mrs. J. W. Acton.

Jesse D. Wearan, insurance agent of your city, was here Tuesday. Miss Sue Rout, of Stanford, accompanied by her father, J. W. Rout, was here last week. Mrs. J. L. Johnson and daughter, Miss Virginia, returned Sunday from a visit to relatives near McKinney. Miss Gertrude Pennybacker spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. Dineen, at Somerset. C. M. Pennybacker, of Lexington, is at his home here resting up. John William Dineen has returned to his home at Somerset after a few days' visit to his grandmother, Mrs. B. C. Pennybacker. Master Willie McCarty has been ill for a few days, but is better now. Mrs. Leonie Francis is quite sick. Your correspondent is effected with "that tired feeling," which we suppose is a symptom of spring fever.

Misses Effie Carey, Ella Chevolette and Gertrude Leach went to Lexington Tuesday to visit Mrs. Everett Chevolette and Mrs. G. W. Ball. Ed McCarty, Stephen Reynolds and Manford Chevolette bade their friends a tearful farewell and departed Tuesday for Oklahoma to locate. They will be greatly missed, of course, but we wish them all success in their new Western home.

W. L. McCarty is back from the city with an immense line of new goods and continues to have an excellent trade, notwithstanding he is now conducting business on a strictly cash basis. Mr. McCarty is now in search of an experienced saleslady to fill the vacancy of his ex-salesman, Stephen Reynolds, who had been with him for quite a number of years and was as popular as he was well-known throughout the vicinity. J. M. McCarty will have difficulty in finding a substitute for his ex-clerk, Manford Chevolette. He is an excellent young man and was a faithful and efficient clerk. Mr. McCarty is doing quite well in the millinery department. His pretty trimmer, Miss Viola Bosley, of Owensboro, is still with him. Mrs. C. G. Baker is also doing extremely well in the millinery business. Last but not least Mr. G. A. Walter is in the city buying an extensive line of new spring goods. Mr. Walter has a good, reliable trade always to be depended upon.

A VERY REMARKABLE REMEDY.
"It is with a good deal of pleasure and satisfaction that I recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Druggist A. W. Sawtelle, of Hartford, Conn. "A lady customer, seeing the remedy exposed for sale on my show case, said to me: 'I really believe that medicine saved my life the past summer while at the shore, and she became so enthusiastic over its merits that I at once made up my mind to recommend it in the future.' Recently a gentleman came into my store so overcome with colic pains that he sank at once to the floor. I gave him a dose of this remedy which helped him. I repeated the dose and in fifteen minutes he left my store smilingly informing me that he felt as well as ever." Sold by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

HUBBLE.
500 setting hens wanted here at a good price.

More hemp is being sown here than ever before.

Aunt Martha Hubble has been very sick for the last few weeks.

Rats caught and killed several young pigs for Wm. Stanford a few days ago. Some bounds got after Bruce's cattle a few days ago and came near running them to death. This is more evidence of the need of a dog law.

Mrs. Amanda Lay has returned to S. Dunbar's for a few months' stay. Mrs. Doolin, of Pulaski county, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. T. C. Rankin. Mr. Lee Rankin and wife, of Wayne, are visiting J. M. Rankin.

What most people want is something mild and gentle, when in need of a physic. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets fill the bill to a dot. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

As State Senator C. F. Burnam and wife were riding over a bridge on Silver Creek, in Madison, their horse fell through into a large hole, demolishing the vehicle. The Senator and his wife had a narrow escape from death.

While Joe Smith and James Buckner were out hunting, in Clay county, Buckner shot at a woodcock and shot himself through the leg, the ball also taking effect in the leg of Smith, who was hunting with him. Smith's wound is considered dangerous.

A change of venue to Laurel county, which was asked for the five Shotwell boys, charged with dynamiting the Roach White restaurant at Corbin, has been refused. Their second trial will be called next Tuesday. John and Charley are in jail without bail.

The Southeastern Mineral Land Co. has been organized at East Bernstadt. This company has 3,000 acres of land in Pulaski county under lease. Zinc and other ores have been found on the land, and this company thinks that oil and coal can be found on the same level.

BEWARE OF A COUGH
A cough is not a disease but a symptom. Consumption and bronchitis, which are the most dangerous and fatal diseases, have for their first indication a persistent cough, and if properly treated as soon as this cough appears are easily cured. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has proven wonderfully successful and gained its wide reputation and wonderful sale by its success in curing the diseases which cause coughing. If it is not beneficial it will not cost you a cent. For sale by Craig & Hocker.

Facts About Eyes.

Blue eyes are said to be the weakest. Upturned eyes are typical of devotion.

Wide open eyes are indicative of rashness. Brown eyes are said by oculists to be the strongest.

Small eyes are supposed to indicate cunning. The downcast eye has in all ages been typical of modesty.

The proper distance between the eyes is the width of one eye. People of melancholic temperament rarely have clear, blue eyes.

Eyes with long, sharp corners indicate great discernment and penetration. The white of the eye showing beneath the iris, is indicative of nobility of character.

Gray eyes turning green in anger or excitement are indicative of a choleric temperament. When the upper lid covers half or more of the pupil the indication is of cool deliberation.

An eye, the upper lid of which passes horizontally across the pupil, indicates mental ability. Unsteady eyes, rapidly jerking from side to side, are frequently indicative of an unsettled mind.

It is said that the prevailing colors of eyes among the patients in lunatic asylums are brown and black.

CHURCH MATTERS.

The annual convention of the Tennessee diocese of the Episcopal church is in session in Nashville.

Rev. J. W. Hagin's subject Sunday morning is, "Christian Confidence," evening, "Our Father's House."

In the whole State of Indiana there are just 725,409 church members who own 5,958 church buildings valued at $21,124,528.

There will be no services at the Baptist church Sunday. Rev. J. B. Crouch, the pastor, will preach the Baccalaureate sermon at Baptist College at Williamsburg on that day.

Laurel Baptist Seminary, London, has made its first effort at a country church towards raising $5,000 needed. W. B. McCarty rallied his forces at State Lick church and enthusiastically speeches and $550 were had.—Baptist Argus.

The appellate court, in reversing a case from Crittenden county against the Standard Oil Company, holds that the word "incorporate" does not have to be displayed at every place of business.
